6 November, 2014 | By Jeremy Kay

Cinema Management Group has acquired worldwide rights to Venezuelan hit Liz En Septiembre.

Patricia Velásquez and Eloisa Maturèn stars in the tale of a gay woman challenged by her friends to seduce a straight woman.

Fina Torres, who wrote From Prada To Nada, directed Liz En Septiembre has grossed more than $1m at the local box office.

"We are extremely pleased to be representing such a beautiful and penetrating film as Liz En Septiembre," said president Edward Noeltner (pictured).

"Fina and the amazing cast have created a very special film that lingers for days on the viewers mind and is sure to find the same success internationally as it has in Venezuela."

Noeltner and vice-president of sales Daniel Bort negotiated the deal with the film's producers Torres, Judy Miller and Laura Oramus.
