

SCREENDAILY

Shooting starts on London-set thriller Liars All

18 April, 2011 | By Jeremy Kay

Production got underway in Los Angeles today [18] on the psychosexual thriller about fun and games on New Year's Eve in London that spiral out of control.

Jeffrey Allard of Indie Entertainment is producing along with Joey Carey of Sundial Pictures. Stefan Nowicki of Sundial Pictures, Alex Sagalchik of Mott Street Pictures and Kevin Iwashina and Ross Dinerstein of Preferred Content serve as executive producers.

Preferred Content is representing North American rights and Ed Noeltner's Cinema management Group will introduce to international buyers in Cannes.

Matt Lanter, Gillian Zinser, Torrance Coomb, and Sara Paxton have joined Alice Evans, Tiffany Mulheron and Randy Wayne on the cast. Brian Brightly directs from his own screenplay.

"The cast is brilliant," Brightly said. "Their performances will be as daring and passionate as the game itself."

Related Jobs

Sign in to see the latest jobs relevant to you!

- Writers Academy 2011 - BBC Drama Production

Not Relevant Europe, London, England

- Creative Talent

Competitive Europe, London & Manchester

- Senior Commissioning Executive

Competitive Europe, London, England

- Project Managers with HD & playout experience

Competitive Europe, London England

- Trailer Account Managers

Generous based on experience Europe, London, England

- Account Manager

Generous based on experience Europe, Central London

Find more jobs

Print