Thesps board 'Stranger in Paradise'

Egglefield, Townsend to topline indie action-thriller

By DAVE McNARY

Colin Egglefield, Stuart Townsend, Catalina Sandino Moreno, Byron Mann and Gary Daniels are topline indie action-thriller "Stranger in Paradise," which is moving into production in Thailand.

"Paradise" is produced by both Corrado Jay Boccia and Daemon Hillin. Boccia's 24/7 is producing with Benetone Films, Hillin Entertainment in association with Cinema Management Group and Triton Entertainment while exec producers are Paul Dominique Vacharasinthu and Sonia Couling Vacharasinthu's Marengo Films Presents.

Cinema Management Group is handling worldwide rights and will be selling at the American Film Market next month.

Written and directed by Corrado Jay Boccia, "Paradise" centers on a trader at a hedge fund whose life takes a drastic turn when the SEC launches an investigation against the head of the company for insider trading. Forced into a "vacation" he never asked for, the trader finds himself in Bangkok with a price on his head and a morally ambiguous older brother who is knee deep in the Thai mafia.

Egglefield starred in "Something Borrowed." Townsend appeared in "Chaos Theory" and Sandino Moreno topline "Maria Full of Grace" and "Fast Food Nation."
